- Proof of a minimum of six months' seniority in the group of companies (employer certificate, payslips);
- Any document providing evidence that the employee has the required skills (degrees);
- An up-to-date excerpt of the commercial register (extrait K-bis) for the company to which the employee is to be posted;
- Social security certificate of temporary employment abroad or sworn declaration of application for registration with the French social security system;
- Where applicable, a sworn declaration of application for registration with the relevant paid leave scheme (caisse des congés payés);
- Certificate of payment of social security contributions by the entity established in France.

Renewal

- Certificate of employment or copy of last three pay slips;

- Evidence that the assignment is continuing beyond the initial period, and proof of the duration of the proposed extension;
- Currently valid certificate of temporary employment abroad.

In France – Online validation procedure

Upon arriving in France, once the visa has been approved, and no more than three months after entering French territory, the visa holder must register with the French Immigration and Citizenship Office (Office français de l'immigration et de l'intégration – OFII). A long-stay visa is only equivalent to a residence permit if approved by the OFII.

The validation procedure as well as the payment of the tax on the residence permit and the stamp duty is now made online using the following website: <https://administration-etrangers-en-france.interieur.gouv.fr/particuliers/#/>
